Letter from the President

Scarlett Sanders

Hello everyone,

I hope that you all had a wonderful Easter holiday!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to our White Shepherds!! The White Shepherd was recognized by United Kennel Club on April 14, 1999. A special "Thank you" to those fellow WS lover's who were in the forefront of making our breed separation a reality in the UKC Registry!

Our Easter photo contest brought in some adorable photos of our beautiful white dogs! I hope you enjoy the entry photos, a very special thank you to Ruthann Roggie for judging our contest!! Congratulations to all the winners!

The warm weather is upon us now, don't forget to bring your camera during your outings with your furry friend and enter your favorite photos in the UWSC Summertime Fun WS Photo Contest! All entries & winner's will appear in the July/August issue of our newsletter.

I am very happy to report that our first Multi Breed shows & Obedience trials in several years was a success! Thank you so much Miranda, Jean and those of you who pitched in to help for all your hard work and bringing us ever closer to our goal of Parent Club status!! I would also like to thank Arleen & those who have helped her during CGC & Therapy dog testing at our shows, not only this show, she has done this for our club for several years now. Thank you Arlene.

Premier entries opened on April 15, 2010. For those of you who haven't attended Premier and plan to do performance events, there is a limit on entries and they fill up quick! The Premier location has changed this year, it will be located in Richmond, IN. I hope to see many of you there this year!! As in years past, our National Specialty will be on Thursday July 8th following the Top Ten competition. Our annual Club meeting & BBQ will be Saturday evening as usual. I hope that our members attending Premier plan to come to the meeting & BBQ.

Welcome new club members Ala Johnson-Arends & family and Gayle Rose & family! I would also like to welcome Ala Johnson-Arends to our newsletter staff!! We look forward to working with you on the next upcoming newsletter!!

HAPPY SPRING!!

Your friend in the White Shepherd,

Scarlett

Letter from the Editor

Howdy!

Well, I think it is safe to say many of you are finally beginning to enjoy some wonderful spring weather and are certainly enjoying it after such a tough winter! Even for us folks in the south, that had an unusually "cool" winter are enjoying the warmer days that we are so used to.

It sounds like the shows in Valparaiso, IN sure turned out great! Thanks, Miranda and Jean, for all you did in putting the show(s) together. Thanks to everyone else that came to the shows, I know they certainly appreciated all the wonderful help, too! Congrats to all the WINNERS! Sounds like our White Shepherds sure stood out :0)!

As some of you may know, I am going to be taking a break from working on the newsletter. My husband and I are expecting our first 2-legged child, a baby girl, and are extremely excited! As many of you know there is a lot to do in preparing for this bundle of joy so over the next month and a half we will be busy, busy getting ready for her arrival. My due date is June 3rd, right around the corner and will be here before we know it. Thank you so much to Ala Johnson-Arends for stepping up and getting involved. The newsletter is really a lot of fun and a lot of work, too, but such a great way to get to know everyone in the club!

Good luck to everyone in the near future on all of your fun things you set out to do with your 4-legged children! It is always so impressive to me to see what all these dogs do and accomplish!!

Tara Tippit

Red Boy from Haley and Hemi's litter entered in a couple of shows at the Chicagoland Family Pet Expo. He didn't have a formal name, but we called him Hallmark's Wing Man for the sake of the entries. He did extremely well in the shows earning Best Puppy In Specialty Show honors (one for AWSA and one for WSCC) and the judges had some great comments about his structure, movement and temperament.

Congrats to his breeder: Mona Persson!

Meet The New Member!

My name is Ala Johnson-Arends. I live in Shreveport, LA. I have always loved the German Shepherd breed. Blue was my first German Shepherd. Blue came into my life at 8 months and his sister Sasha 8 months later. They have been apart of my life for 11 years. My baby boy, Blue, died at 11 ½ years old this past summer. After a couple of months, I knew I needed another boy so I started researching breeders. My husband suggested the White Shepherds and I thought why not? So I expanded my look to the white G/S. To my surprise, it was a fun experience.

Ala and Dax

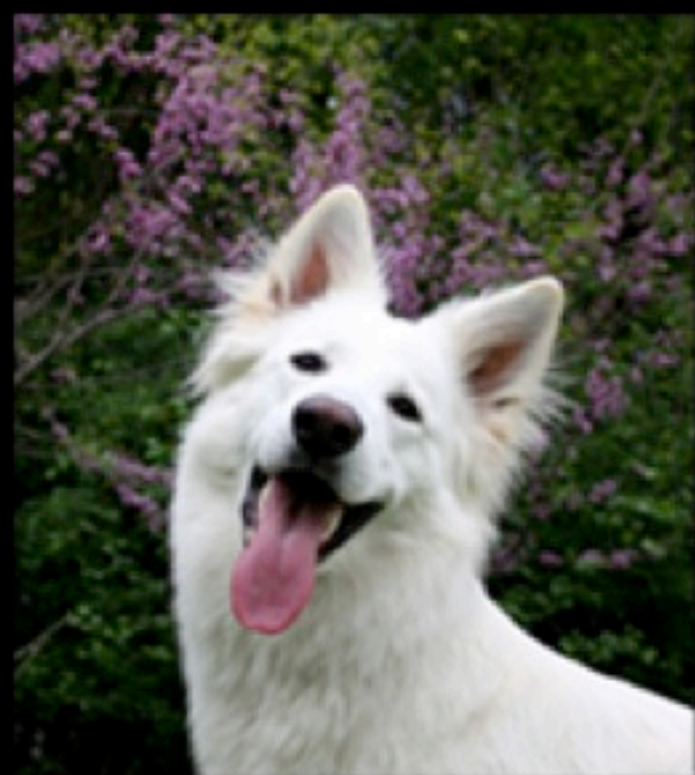

January 2, 2010, I brought home Jay Dee's Daxen Blue, aka "Dax" my new baby boy. He is now 5 months old and a joyful addition to my home. His personality has little bit of his namesake and his sister, Sasha. Currently, Dax is taking obedience and agility. He loves going to school but just like a child; he excels in class but loves to act up instead of practicing his homework. Dax has a personality that is mischievous and playful. Dax looks like he always has a smile on his face.

I love and have loved 3 German Shepherds: Blue, Sasha, and Dax. I am ready to make room for more. I will never want another breed like the German Shepherd. And now thanks to a great idea of my husband, I will stay with the White German Shepherd line.

One-to-one time.

As much as I adore puppies, I have to say that adolescent dogs have just as much appeal, for me. I believe it is best discovered by spending one-to-one time with them. You get to know them in a different way and it gives them a chance to understand you better too. Spirit and Quest stayed home this day. Pirate and I took the RV to the DEQ Clean Air Station to renew the registration. I thought we would only be gone for a couple hours at most - about a 50 mile round trip. It turned into an adventure though. We crossed the Columbia River, enjoying two big ships passing beneath us. One was on its way to Portland and the other, out to sea. Pirate was a little unsure where he should be riding. Spirit and Quest often share the passenger seat and Pirate then rides on the dinette seat right behind the driver or else on my bed in the back. However, with the vacant passenger seat inviting him, he eventually came up front. I love the way he looks at me questioning things we see. He studies my reaction to anything that he finds curious, and seems to take his lead on how to react, from me. I know he does that with the older dogs all the time, but it was fun to see him use me as his gage on how to respond.

As we drove along the river, I was enjoying the gorgeous scenery. There were forests, streams and waterfalls. Shortly, the traffic (usually scarce in this rural area) slowed to a stop and looking ahead I could see it was a long, long line. I finally shut down the engine as we sat waiting. People got out of their cars and strolled about talking to people in the cars near them. Pirate did not miss anything and when they sometimes walked close to our vehicle, he softly "woofed", a little comment. I noticed how much more mature he has gotten. It seems only a few months back when he would have watched in silence. His confidence has grown and as I watched him sitting so securely in the passenger seat, I realized he was in full defense mode. He saw nothing to really be upset by, but I suddenly realized that should something appear, this was no longer a pup who would look to me to shield him. At the very least this young boy, now 2-1/2, would stand side by side with me and likely step out in front of me to protect. What a thrill to see this beautiful boy and realize how wonderfully he has matured. I have never trained my dogs to defend. I just enjoy watching them naturally develop into wonderful guardians.

I could not train them any better than they train each other and for my needs, they are just perfect in the degree to which they enforce their will. They each have a self appointed role: Spirit is the instructor, Quest the enforcer and Pirate always positioned himself beside me (last defense?). I have noticed in the recent months, Pirate now moves out with Quest. Spirit, in his senior years now stays a little closer to me. They know what they are doing. I could not improve on this. They are well aware of the capabilities of each other, physically and mentally.

Anyway, we finally took a back road to break the boredom. I did not know where we were going, but we got to see deer, and a few elk. We parked and shared a small bag of mixed nuts and checked out a stream. We listened to the quiet and just walked together in a meadow. I kind of hated to leave, but I found our way back to the highway, and the wreck had been cleared. A pretty little yellow roadster had hit something and was on a flat bed being hauled away.

After registering the RV we headed back home. I think we have a new and even better appreciation of each other. I know I do, of him. We got a wonderful homecoming greeting from Pirate's big brothers. As unhappy as they are when they are not the chosen ones, to go somewhere, they are doubly happy when we come home and no pouting about being left home! Later in the evening I felt a warm chin on my foot as I was on the computer. My travel buddy decided to fall asleep with his warm nose touching my foot. I think he may have been dreaming of our adventure.

"Gentle Ben" was rescued from abuse in Florida last spring. Scarlett Sanders nursed him back to health and fostered him for several months.

In September Ruthann adopted him, traveled almost 2800 miles round trip to get him, and brought him back to his new home in Upstate New York.

People say that Ben has "hit the jackpot." He does enjoy a wonderful, happy life now, and he gives a great deal of love and laughs in return. And he loves to play "hide my face" in our snow up here! ☺

- Maybe someone would take on an on-line auction as well.
- And, it is always nice to have food available for lunches—anyone want to coordinate this?

WHITE SHEPHERD GENETICS PROJECT

- The second edition of the White Shepherd Advocate newsletter will be prepared and sent out in the near future.
- The website is being updated and you will see new fresh colors, more photos, a completed memorial section, and other changes and additions.
- Melanie is hard at work on the update to the database and I'll be proofing it soon.
- The 5th WSGP Annual Fundraiser is set for August 26, 27 in Romulus, Michigan, and there is a possibility we will have an educational seminar the night before that will be open to all breeds and breed clubs in our area.
- A new section will be added to the database that will consist of information about 1) the dogs from the necropsy project, 2) dogs that have had all or a portion of some part of their diagnosis or surgery paid for by the WSGP, and 3) dogs that participated in the PennHIP project.
- We are planning to have a Longevity page on the website.
- We are planning to have a section that will list all the on-going research projects with links and whatever other information we can gather.
- We will be looking for talented "web" people to take on a project under the guidance of our Webmaster, AnnMarie Mikelski.
- We plan to have GenPeds in a GenPed section of the website for most of the diseases our breeders and owners are concerned with, including the list that was sent to the AKC CHF for their use in determining which research projects were most requested.
- We have recently increased our bank balance by selling some of the DVDs donated by Cesar Millan to people either interested in distributing them to puppy buyers or selling them in creative ways and sending the funds back to the WSGP. Thank you in particular to Scarlett Sanders, Ken Makowski, and Robin Davey for their efforts.

Entry # 18 Scarlett Sanders & Mia

Judge: What a lovely photo. And the one branch out in front of this dog's neck really completes the photo. It looks like the dog is smelling of the beautiful flowers

~ BEST ~

Entry # 17 Rick Santos & Misty

Judge: This photo has it all - a beautiful dog, lots of color, even a butterfly near the dog's nose. The beautiful, alert white dog together with the flowers, Easter basket and colored eggs makes a striking photo.

~ FUNNIEST ~

Entry # 2 Robin Davey

Lulu & Prince

"Judge: What do you want us to do?" I love the way these two dogs are obviously listening intently -- the dog in back peaking out from behind, and both dog with their heads cocked to one side.

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE!

Judge: "We've finally got it together." Here the same two dogs look like they're satisfied that they know exactly what to do. Cute bowtie and ribbon - must be a him & her.

Sports

Spirit is doing very well in spite of all his aging issues. He gets around pretty well, though slowly, and there are many things he enjoys in his normal day of events.

Yesterday was a very special day for him. We had nice weather and two of Spirit's favorite people, my daughter and her husband came for brunch. During the day, various doors were left open on and off. This morning when I fed the dogs I noticed that Spirit had not eaten all of his meal. He left a small amount in his dish and had positioned himself so he could keep his eye on it. I soon saw the reason for that ... it was bait ... the game has begun! One thing an old dog with arthritis can still do as well, or better than a young dog! Fly catching! Patience is the key.

Spirit just has to be one of the most handsome fly-hunters ever. His ears are rigid in the position of highest alert. His mouth is set and ready. His eyes are bright and intense. And there is one now! Spirit's nose and eyes follow the little critter in spirals as it circles in on the dish. And YES, it is landing now. "CHOMP" oh well, missed that time - maybe a little out of practice from the long winter (no flies). Oh, there it is, on the side of the dryer. It shows up well there. Just wait quietly... the little food thief will be after the kibble any minute. "Come on, I saved you some and it is really good". Oh, it is up and starting its' spiral - maybe the 'death spiral'. Quest wandered through the laundry room to see if anyone left any food he might nab. Spirit, anticipating his intent, snarled a strong warning. "I need that food for bait, Quest. Don't touch it!"

"Ok, now this is more like it - here he comes". Big snap! Got him! Now spit him out - oh he is still moving, smack him with my paw. Sniff him tip my head to listen for a buzz ... no buzz ... first fly of the season! "I need a place to carve notches - maybe the side of the dryer?"

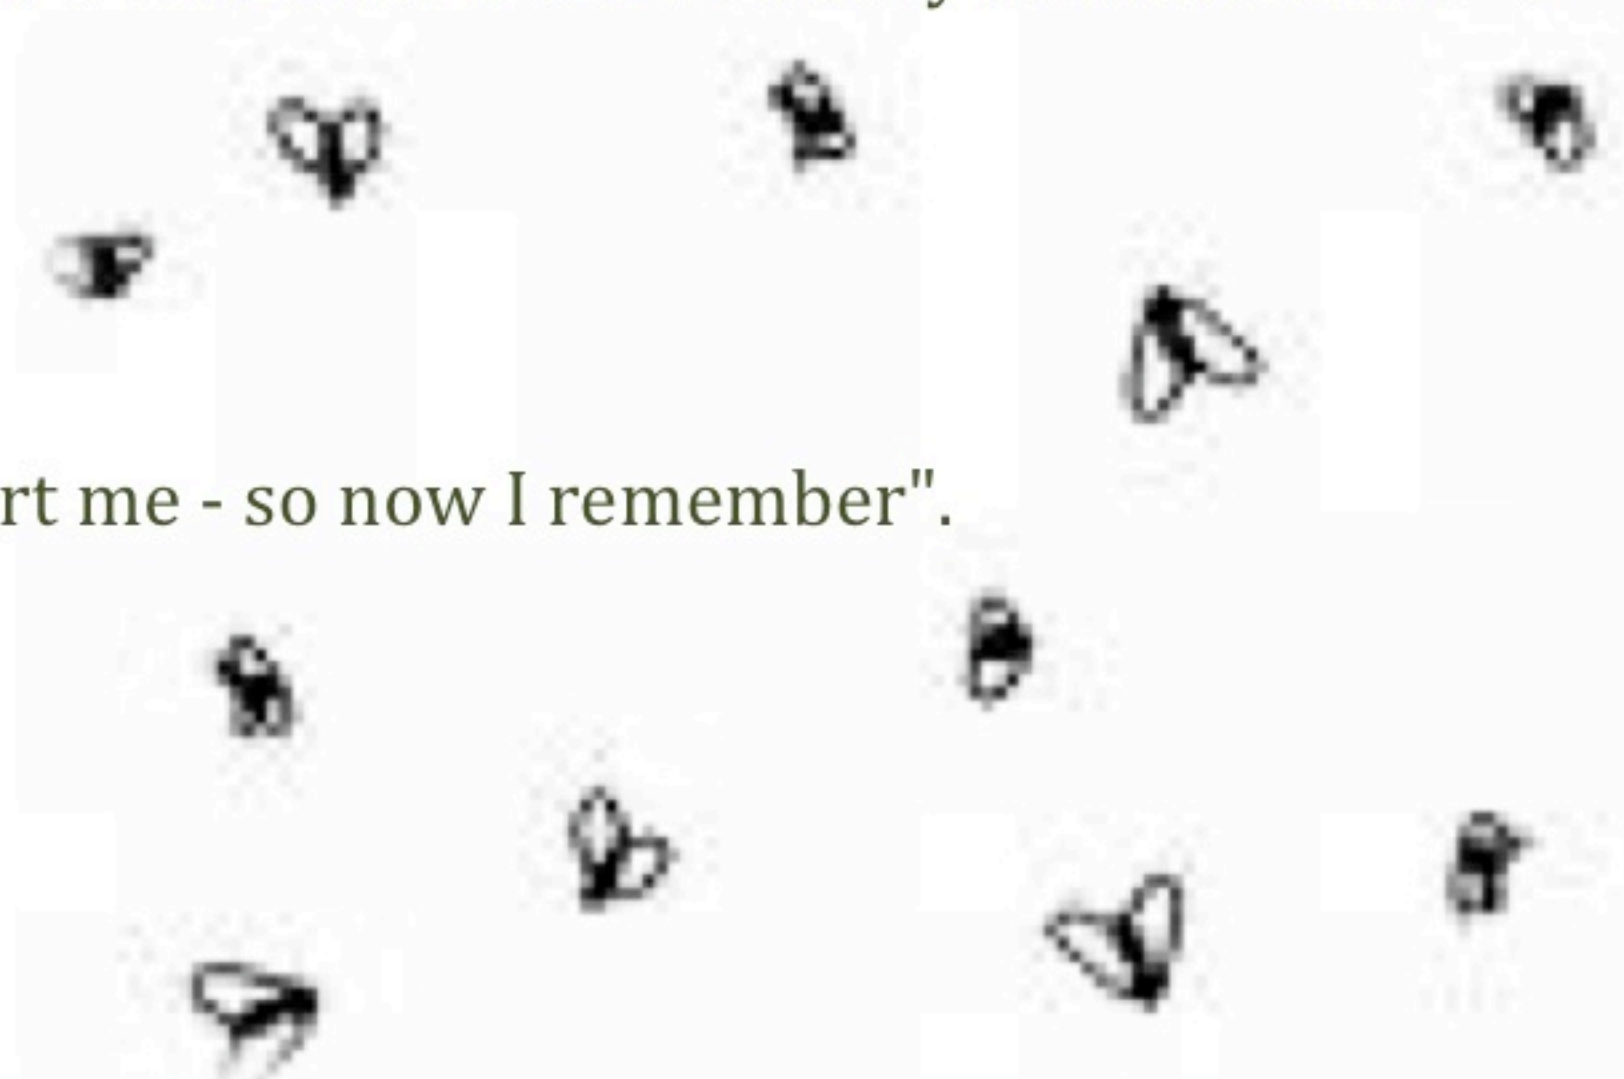

Pirate comes in, "I can help you Spirit" .

"No way, you can't tell flies from bees".

"I can now Spirit, I just goofed that one time and he really hurt me - so now I remember".

Ah, the boys of summer.
