NOTES FROM THE EDITOR

Hi Everyone,

The new year is nearly here and with it starts the new show season! It time to begin thinking and planning for the big 2007 UKC Premier! Congratulations to all our UKC Top Ten final placements for 2006! We're so proud of each of you and hope you will be able to attend the 2007 UKC Premier. As most of you know UWSC holds our WS Specialty show, our annual meeting and club election results at Premier. We also look forward to our annual BBQ where we can visit and catch up on the past year. I for one, who lives so far from so many WS friends who are dear to me, look forward to this event every year.

I would like to congratulate all the contest winner's of the WS Christmas Photo Contest! I would also like to thank all those who sent in all the wonderful entries! I know the Judge must have had a really hard time with so many beautiful photos to choose from!

Our annual WS Easter Photo Contest will be coming soon, so get those entries ready!

We had a couple of WS birthdays in this issue, Happy Birthday to all of you!

We wish each of you a wonderful and prosperous 2007!

Please everyone... remember to send in show results, new titles, WS Birthdays, New Arrivals, WS brags ect... and don't forget your photos! Thanks for supporting your UWSC Newsletter!! ;o)

Your newsletter editor,

Scarlett

Happy holidays, Everyone!

I hope that everyone has had the opportunity to enjoy some good times with friends and family. And, better yet, spend some quality time with your White Shepherd companions. (Personally, I had a blast teaming up with Kyla and earning her AHBA Junior Herding Dog title on Thanksgiving weekend – yeah!)

My focus in this communication is to extend a sincere and heartfelt “Thank-you” to Laurie Malony. Laurie took on the Club’s Membership Chair and made it her own, including the use of our Club’s website for membership renewal and application submissions. Laurie also addressed every UWSC Yahoo Group’s “I want to Join Your Club” inquiry as well as created a very nice Welcome packet to distribute to the new members. Unfortunately, effective January 2007, Laurie is stepping down from her position to tend to her family’s needs. My first thought was “How will we ever replace her?” Well, Laurie, being as organized and prepared as she always is, said that she had the perfect candidate, Amanda (Mandy) Phillips. The Board promptly asked Mandy if she would consider accepting, allow Laurie to train her, and then carry on the duties at hand. And, I am very pleased to say she has accepted!

It’s also time to start planning for the upcoming June elections. Elections will be held for both President and Treasurer this year. We will require a Nomination Committee to secure at least one candidate for these positions. Any volunteers? ((smile))

Last but not least, many of us are looking forward to the upcoming UKC Mid-Winter Classic shows in Novi, Michigan. (See info below.)

Here’s to a happy and healthy New Year to all!

Who's Toy is That?

By Nicole Johnson

"It's Mine!! It's Mine!! Mommy!!" How many of you have heard this from your children? And when you lift your eyes to see the problem you find a tug of war ensuing between your puppy and child over a toy. Usually your child's favorite toy. Can you really teach your puppy to leave your children's toys alone without having to have them locked away all the time? Can you really teach a puppy to be able to discern between who's toys are who's? The answer is yes.

First you will need a toy box for the dog toys. I use a green recycle basket. Works great and is not too high or deep. Next you will need a scent. Something like vanilla, maple or almond. Any scent will do. I prefer almond just because it is not a smell you would find on toys or objects, plus it is clear. I use almond extract. Take the extract and put a small drop on each of the dogs toys. Then put it in the basket. You will need to replace the scent every four or five days.

The rest is just patience and persistence. Start out with bringing the puppy to his toy box. Make sure it is always in the main room the dog is in and easily assessable. Take each toy out one at a time and play with him with it. Praising him all the time. Then place the toy in the toy box and take out the next one as he watches. Keep doing this till you have introduced him to all his toys. This is teaching him where his toys are and that these toys are allowed to be played with. The scent marker on the toys is to help him to discern his toys from everything else. After this every time you find him with a toy that is not his clap your hands loudly to distract him from the toy, take it from him and very firmly say “(puppy’s name)Not Yours.” Then immediately take him to his toy box and introduce him to his toys. Play with him with one of his toys and praise. Follow this routine every single time he is caught with a toy that is not his. In a few months your puppy will know the difference between his toys and your children’s toys. Usually by the time they are 10 months to a year you can stop scenting the toys. But every time you introduce a new toy add the scent for a couple of weeks so the dog knows it is his to play with. Soon you will be able to trust you dog as much as you can see I trust mine.

Have you heard of the UKC Herding Program?

In June 2004 a small group formed a UKC HERDING yahoo list
<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/ukcherding/>

The group was formed and began revising a herding program that earlier had been written, the list has grown to over 200 and the revisions to the program have been completed and submitted to the United Kennel Club, Inc. for approval
